
Faint markers retain all original points. Each scheme uses the same nondominance rule. No smoothing.
Lines guide the eye; they do not certify intermediate feasible states or a global Pareto boundary.